Have you tried e-Learning Yet?

e-Learning, also known as online learning, can help you meet your learning goals by providing access to courses anytime/anywhere via the internet.

- With e-learning you can learn your own pace, stopping the course at any time, then resume from where you left off.
- With e-Learning you can jump into a course and learn only the information you need, at the time you need it.

Why MindLeaders?

MindLeaders is a learning company. They have over 25 years of experience designing e-learning programs that promote the success of people and organizations. Their courses cover topics from software skills to leadership, from workplace and food safety, to programming and network administration. MindLeaders holds both the State of Connecticut and University of Connecticut contracts for the procurement of e-learning services. Learn more at MindLeaders.com.
