Frequently Asked Questions

8. What if I have not received confirmation that my appointment will be continued for the Fall semester but I would still like to make changes in the event I receive confirmation after Open Enrollment has ended?

- a. Graduate Assistants, Graduate Interns and Graduate Fellows who have not received confirmation of continuation for the next Academic Year, may still make changes during the open enrollment period. There will not be an opportunity to change insurance elections after May 15, without a qualifying life event.*

Please note continuation does NOT qualify as a life event to make elections/changes to your coverage.*

9. What is a qualified life event?

- a. A qualified life event is a status change that qualifies you to make changes to your coverage and/or the dependents you cover. Examples are marriage, divorce, birth of child, adoption, death of a dependent, and loss of coverage for you or your dependents. This is not an exhaustive listing; please contact Human Resources if you have questions regarding qualified life events.

10. How do I find out what I am currently enrolled in and which dependents are enrolled?

- a. You may log into CORE-CT to find out your current election and who is covered under your plan under "Benefits Summary". For those not in CORE-CT (Graduate Fellows) you may contact Human Resources to find out your current election and who you cover under your plan. You may also contact the carriers directly if you have questions:
